

A full training session or shorter add-on courses

Make your first golf swing in Spain

On our 'driving range' first-class teachers will introduce you to the basic technics within the magic world of golf.

In beautiful surroundings and the perfect climate, you can find out if golf is something for you to look more into.

The education can take place as a full scale training session or as one or a series of ½-day courses, for instance as one activity in a multi-sport package or as an add-on activity.

- A golf programme could consist of:
- A full package over several days – or one or more half day courses as an add-on to other activities
  - Professional international trainers
  - Complementary access to our own water park, swimming pools, fitness facilities etc.
  - A number of joyful alternative activities
  - Beautiful and exciting excursions of your choice
